

Storytime with a star

This term, pupils have the chance to win a celebrity storyteller visit for the school. Join in by walking to school as often as possible and meeting home reading targets. Winning classes will meet storytellers including CBeebies stars Phil Gallagher of Mister Maker and Joanna Adeyinka-Burford of The Let's Go Club. Visit www.InspireSchools.org.uk

Seeking super chefs

Children aged six and up have until 7 November to enter the Young Cooks contest. Entrants prepare a meal and submit a photo plus recipe details to the Young Cooks website. Competition categories include Primary School, Secondary School, and Family (for adult-and-child teams). Winners will receive a share of £500! Find out more at www.YoungCooks.org.uk

Reduce, reuse, recycle... reward!

Help us to praise and encourage eco-friendly behaviour in pupils with The Green School Awards. Simply nominate your favourite green activity in our school whether it's a recycling, conservation, or green travel project. Details of winning projects will also be shared across the county to inspire other schools! Nominate by 7 December at www.GreenSchoolAwards.co.uk

Be the Boss of Ashford International Hotel

A new writing competition will give one pupil the top job at Ashford International Hotel for a day. Entrants must write a letter persuading a friend to join in the walk to school. Submissions will be judged on creativity, knowledge of the benefits of green travel, and handwriting skills. Enter by 10 December at www.InspireSchools.org.uk

Picture perfect packed lunch

Young artists have the chance to see their artwork go on display at the Beany House of Art and Knowledge. That's the prize for every finalist of the Perfect Packed Lunch Awards. To enter, draw and write about an imaginary lunchbox meal. Categories range from Superhero to Famous Artist. Enter at www.PerfectPackedLunch.org.uk before 5 November.
